SPEAKERS

Jim Lyons is currently Pastor of Knockbracken Congregational Church in South Belfast. Jim and his wife Hilda spent sixteen years in the Faith Mission and they have 4 children. Jim's passion can summed up in the words of Charles Wesley: "Let me live to preach Thy Word, And let me to Thy Glory live."

Derek Maxwell has served for the past 15 years with Slavic Gospel Association, preaching and lecturing throughout Eastern Europe and Central Asia. His desire is to equip believers for the ministry of evangelism and church planting. Derek is currently General Director of SGA. He is married to Carole and they have 2 children.

William McCandless is originally from Belfast. He has pastored churches in Lisburn, Ballymena, Bristol and for 22 years at Lurgan Elim Church before retirement. He lectured at Elim Bible College and ministered extensively, preaching and teaching, in several countries in Africa, also in Pakistan. He remains active in retirement. He is married to Margaret and they have two children and four grandchildren.

Jeremy McQuoid is Teaching Pastor at Deeside Christian Fellowship in Aberdeen. In addition to a weekly teaching ministry, he preaches at national conventions and is passionate about training younger leaders. He has written "The Amazing Cross" along with his wife Elizabeth, a Keswick trustee, and devotional guides to Mark and Hebrews. Jeremy and Liz have 3 boys.

Andrew Mullan is the Associate Minister in Mourne Presbyterian Church, Kilkeel where he has been preaching and pastoring for the last ten years. His desire is to preach God's word in the power of the Holy Spirit and is passionate about Gospel ministry locally and globally. Andrew is greatly looking forward to the Faith Mission Convention and praying for God's speaking voice and transforming grace at Bangor this year.

Robert Murdock was born in Edinburgh and was converted as a teenager when his family moved to Co Cavan. Robert trained at FMBC and, after further studies, pastored churches in N. Ireland and Canada. He is now Principal of FMBC, Edinburgh. His desire is to teach the Bible in a dynamic and relevant way, believing it is a dynamic and relevant book. Robert is married to Elaine and they have 5 teenage children.
