SPEAKERS

VAL ENGLISH

Val describes himself as “an Englishman with an Irish heart”! Originally from the N. East of England, he has lived in N. Ireland for almost 50 years. He has been involved in Pastoral work with four different Churches in N I and extensive evangelism in various parts of the world. He lectured at Belfast Bible College for eight years and is now engaged in an itinerant ministry. He is greatly looking forward to the Convention.

PAUL MALLARD

Paul has been a pastor since 1982, serving in three churches and for three years he was the President of the FIEC. He currently pastors Widcombe Baptist Church in Bath. Paul is married to Edrie and for the last 20 years Paul and Edrie have had to live with Edrie’s serious neurological degenerative disease. This has shaped their ministry and it has proved God’s faithfulness. He has written two books. “Invest Your Suffering” seeks to bring biblical encouragement out of their experience of chronic illness. “Staying Fresh” addresses the important subject of maintaining spiritual vitality. They have four children and five grandchildren.

ROBERT MURDOCK

Robert was born in Edinburgh and was converted as a teenager when his family moved to Co Cavan. Robert trained at FMBC and, after further studies, pastored churches in N Ireland and Canada. He is now Principal of FMBC, Edinburgh. His desire is to teach the Bible in a dynamic and relevant way, believing it is a dynamic and relevant book. He also has an extensive Bible teaching ministry across the UK and Ireland. Robert is married to Elaine and they have five teenage children.

CHARLES PRICE

Charles is “Minister at Large” with The Peoples Church, Toronto, Canada, where he was Lead Pastor from 2001 to 2016. Originally from England, for many years he was involved in the ministry of Capernwray Hall Bible school. Whilst at The Peoples Church he had an hour-long television programme, Living Truth, broadcast coast to coast in Canada each week. He also has a daily 30 minute radio programme, broadcast in parts of the U.S.A., Canada, New Zealand, the Philippines and the UK. He has preached in every continent and is the author of 7 books. He is married to Hilary and they have three children and five grandchildren.

DAVID REIMER

Having spent thirty years working in universities in Canada, England, and Scotland, David joined the team at the Faith Mission Bible College in 2018, where he now serves as Academic Dean. Although his teaching area is biblical studies, he also enjoys forays into church history. He is originally from Canada and has lived with his family in the UK since the mid- 1980s.
