Jonathan Currie
Jonathan was converted as a young boy through The Faith Mission in Co Antrim. He spent one year at Cliff College Derbyshire and later studied theology in Aberdeen. He has been in the ministry for 18 years and is presently minister of Lecumpher and Union Road, Magherafelt Presbyterian churches. He serves on The Faith Mission Council and regularly preaches at Faith Mission events throughout the UK and Ireland. He is married to Liz and they have three children.

Raymond Moore
Raymond Moore was a former lecturer at Jordanstown Campus before hearing the clear call of God and entering full time Christian service. The Lord has blessed his ministry in the Lisburn Independent Methodist church, where he has been Pastor for twenty five years and has also conducted many evangelistic campaigns. Raymond has preached at many Faith Mission events, including Bangor Convention in 2007. He is married to Edith and they have three children.

Andrew Mullan
Andrew was converted as a boy and is daily amazed at God’s sovereign grace. He studied law and later heard God’s call to the ministry, commencing Theological studies at Union College Belfast in 2005. After completing his time as assistant minister in Mourne Presbyterian Church, Kilkeel, in 2011, he was ordained and installed there as Associate Minister. Andrew has been a speaker at several Faith Mission camps and youth events and has an effective ministry among young people.

Jacques Nadeau
Jacques was converted as a young man and after some years, was called into pastoral ministry. He graduated from Ontario Bible College with a BTh. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees at the Toronto Baptist Seminary, and he longs to see the Holy Spirit transform God’s people into a people of prayer, purity and passion. He is presently Pastor of Newcastle Baptist Church, Ontario, Canada. He is married to Tatiana, and they have two sons who both love the Lord. His deepest passion is to be able to say with the Apostle Paul, “For to me to live is Christ and to die is gain.”

John Shearer
John trained in The Faith Mission in the mid 1960’s and worked as an evangelist for a number of years in the Midlands of England. He has been a Baptist Pastor on both sides of the Irish Sea and recently retired after 20 years as Senior Pastor of Musselburgh Baptist Church, near Edinburgh. He was appointed as Interim Principal at the Faith Mission Bible College in Edinburgh in September 2012, where his pastoral and teaching experience is being deeply appreciated. He is married to Jan and they have two children and six grandchildren.
