

BIBLICAL LANGUAGES

*Two-Week
Intensive Courses*

29 APRIL – 10 MAY 2019

FAITH MISSION BIBLE COLLEGE, EDINBURGH

There are many fine translations of the Bible available. However, since translation necessarily involves interpretation, for those who want to study the Bible carefully there are still great advantages in having access to the Bible's original languages. As part of its regular programme of study, the Faith Mission Bible College offers introductory biblical language courses. These are not delivered during the normal semester sessions, but as two-week "intensive" courses following our Spring semester. The 40-hours of class time represent the equivalent of an introductory university course (20-credits, SCQF Level 7 = FHEQ Level 4). Successful completion of the course will take you to the stage of being able to read simple prose texts from the Hebrew Bible or Greek New Testament with the aid of a dictionary. This provides a solid basis on which to continue to develop your skills in reading biblical Hebrew or Koine Greek.

Some minimal advance preparation is strongly recommended; details will be provided on registration.
