

Additional Information

Leaders

The camps are run by experienced leaders, some of whom are full-time Christian workers, others are volunteers. There is a high ratio between leaders and children/teenagers.

Safety

Safety is taken seriously throughout the duration of the camp. All outdoor pursuit activities, (if applicable) are carried out under qualified supervision. The Faith Mission has a Child Protection Policy and all leaders and helpers are subject to this.

Special Requirements

Some children may require extra support and it is our aim, if at all possible, to include them in our camps. This depends on the level of help required and if the particular camp is equipped with appropriate staff to offer the necessary support. In light of this, we ask that the parents/guardians of a child with special requirements would first contact the relevant camp leaders, who will be happy to discuss the matter with you. They will do all they can to ensure that such requirements are considered in the best interests of all concerned.

The Faith Mission reserves the right to:

1. Refuse any application
2. Alter or cancel a camp where necessary
3. Ask a camper to leave the camp if their behaviour is incompatible with the general enjoyment and well-being of others. In this case the parent or guardian will be informed and collection arrangements must be made at their own expense.

Data Protection

The Faith Mission will hold your details on file, but will not release the information to any third party. We respect your privacy and will keep your data secure. You may ask us to tell you what information we hold about you and, at any time, ask us to delete that data.

Our full privacy notice can be viewed online at www.faithmission.org or by contacting The Faith Mission, 548 Gilmerton Road, Edinburgh, EH17 7JD, and requesting that a copy be sent to you.

Full details of camp will be sent to you about six weeks before camp. To reduce our costs, and for your convenience, details will be sent by email to those who have supplied an email address.
